Dear Frank,

I believe you received a copy of Maggie's letter to Fr. Poole (if not, I have enclosed a copy). Please find my response to her. Hopefully, my letter will nip this mess in the bud. Tried to cover all bases, and yet not admit anything.

From the tone of the letter, as well as the wording, I would say that the therapist is the one to deal with more than Maggie. Much of the language in the letter is definitely not Maggie's.

If you have any suggestions on how further to handle this, I certainly am open to suggestions.

Trust this finds all well with you. Take care, and God bless!

Sincerely in Our Lord,

Michael J. Kaniecki, S.J.
